SPEC. DR. FUAT GÜRBÜZ

Anesthesiology and Reanimation Specialist

EXPERIENCE:

American Surgical Medical Center, Anesthesiology and Reanimation Specialist (2019-2024)

During my tenure at this center, I was responsible for managing the anesthesia process for patients in both general and specialized surgical fields safely and effectively. Additionally, optimizing postoperative care and collaborating with multidisciplinary teams were among my primary duties. I gained extensive experience in anesthesia applications, particularly in laparoscopic and minimally invasive surgeries.

Diyadin State Hospital, Anesthesiology Specialist (2018-2019)

At this hospital, I had the opportunity to work with a broad patient spectrum. Working in a rural area presented unique challenges and responsibilities, significantly contributing to my professional development. I enhanced my ability to respond quickly and effectively in emergency situations.

University of Health Sciences, Sultan Abdülhamid Han Training and Research Hospital, Anesthesiology Specialist (2016-2018)

At this training and research hospital, I had the opportunity to engage in both clinical practices and academic work. In addition to directly caring for patients, I contributed to the education of junior colleagues, sharing my medical knowledge and experiences.

GATA Haydarpaşa Training and Research Hospital, Anesthesiology Resident (2013-2016)

As an anesthesiology resident, I was involved in a wide range of surgical cases. Working in intensive care units and operating rooms, I reinforced theoretical knowledge with practical skills. I also undertook significant responsibilities in patient monitoring and management.

Turkish Armed Forces, Anesthesiology Resident (2010-2013)

During this period, while serving within the Turkish Land Forces, I gained experience in anesthesia applications and emergency medical interventions in military hospitals. This experience taught me the importance of working both individually and as part of a team under challenging conditions
